? HARDCASTLE HITS THE STAGE

The crowd EXPLODES.

Friday Night FURY: Episode 2

Marshal Dalton Hardcastle storms out, headset off, sleeves rolled up, Texas fury radiating off him.

He points at Leo like a disappointed father who also owns a shotgun.

Hardcastle: "HEY! You wanna throw a tantrum in MY ring?!"

The crowd roars.

Leo shouts back, pointing at Muchacho, pointing at the ref, pointing at the replay screen.

Hardcastle marches to the ring.

Slides in.

Gets RIGHT in Leo's face.

? HARDCASLTE LAYS DOWN THE LAW

Hardcastle: "You lost. Clean. You hear me? CLEAN."

Leo shakes his head violently.

Hardcastle: "You wanna blame the ref? Blame the crowd? Blame the moon? I don't care."

He steps closer.

Hardcastle: "You put your hands on an official...

and that means I put my hands on your future."

The crowd gasps.

Leo freezes.

? THE CONSEQUENCE

Hardcastle raises the mic.

"Leo Maximus... you're suspended."

The crowd ERUPTS.

Leo's face goes white.

Friday Night FURY: Episode 2

Hardcastle: "One week. No pay. No matches. No excuses."

Leo SCREAMS in Hardcastle's face.

? THE ESCALATION

Leo shoves Hardcastle.

The arena goes SILENT.

Security swarms the ring.

Hardcastle straightens his coat.

Smirks.

Hardcastle: "Make it TWO weeks."

The crowd explodes again.

? MUCHACHO RETURNS FOR THE FINAL SHOT

He waves goodbye to Leo like a cartoon character.

The crowd chants:

"MU-CHA-CHO! MU-CHA-CHO!"

Leo is dragged backstage, screaming.

Hardcastle stands tall in the ring.

Muchacho stands tall on the stage.

The Internet Championship glitters.

? FINAL COMMENTARY CALL

Friday Night FURY: Episode 2

Roxy Reed: "San Antonio... THIS is Friday Night FURY!"

Hector Rodriguez: "Chaos! Suspensions! Scooters! Tacos! I LOVE THIS SHOW!"

Tess Taylor: "Episode 3 is going to be volatile."

The Furnace logo pulses.

The screen fades to black.

END OF FURY EPISODE 2.

Controlled Chaos?

CLOSING STINGER -- "THE AGENTS OF CHAOS INTERRUPT THE CREDITS"

The screen fades to black.

The FURY logo pulses.

The end-credits music begins to play.

Then--

STATIC.

The screen glitches.

The credits freeze.

The music warps like a cassette melting in the sun.

A neon swirl spirals into view.

And suddenly--

? THE AGENTS OF CHAOS APPEAR

Jinx Jester pops into frame upside-down.

Jake Jester leans in from the right.

The Trickster Sister slides in from below like a gremlin.

The Trickster himself materializes behind them, hands on their shoulders, smiling like a man who knows the punchline before the joke is told.

? THE MESSAGE

Jinx Jester:

"Hi San Antonio! You're probably wondering why we didn't... you know..."

She mimes running into the main event and causing absolute mayhem.

"...push the big red CHAOS button tonight."

Jack Jester:

"We were right there, too! Backstage! Watching! Eating popcorn!"

Jake Jester:

"Muchacho even waved at us!"

The Trickster Sister:

"And Leo Maximus looked SO punchable!"

They all nod in agreement.

The Trickster steps forward, adjusting his coat.

? THE TRICKSTER EXPLAINS

"Chaos is not random."

His voice is calm. Too calm.

"Chaos is timing."

Friday Night FURY: Episode 2

He taps the screen.

The frozen credits ripple.

"Tonight was not our moment."

"Tonight was the moment they needed."

He gestures vaguely toward the ring, toward Muchacho, toward Leo's meltdown, toward Hardcastle's suspension decree.

"Chaos thrives when Order thinks it's winning."

The others giggle.

? THE REAL REASON

Jinx raises her hand like a kid in class.

Jinx:

"Also, Hardcastle said if we interfered again he'd lock us in a broom closet with Agent K."

The entire group shudders.

Jack:

"He stares without blinking."

Jake:

"He breathes in straight lines."

The Trickster Sister:

"He alphabetizes threats."

The Trickster sighs dramatically.

"So we behaved. For now."

? THE WARNING

Friday Night FURY: Episode 2

The screen flickers red.

The Agents of Chaos lean in close, filling the frame.

"But next week..."

Jinx giggles.

Jack cracks his knuckles.

Jake juggles something that might be a smoke bomb.

The Trickster Sister bares her teeth.

The Trickster smiles wider.

"...the Furnace won't be safe."

Static erupts.

The screen distorts.

Their final message appears in glitching text:

CHAOS WAITS FOR NO ONE.

Then--

POP.

The credits resume like nothing happened.

"ORDER INTERRUPTS CHAOS

The Agents of Chaos have just vanished in a burst of neon static.

The credits resume for half a second.

Then --

Friday Night FURY: Episode 2

WHITE FLASH.

The screen hard-cuts to a sterile, desaturated frame.

The music stops.

The color drains out of the world.

A black-and-white REALITY PROTOCOL SEAL slams onto the screen.

? THE AGENTS OF ORDER APPEAR

Agent K steps into frame first -- perfectly centered, perfectly still, perfectly annoyed.

Agent L appears beside him, arms folded, posture rigid.

Agent M stands behind them, tablet in hand, scanning the area like he's checking for contamination.

The contrast with the Agents of Chaos is immediate and hilarious.

? AGENT K SPEAKS FIRST

"This unauthorized broadcast interruption is now terminated."

He stares directly into the camera.

No blinking.

No movement.

"The Agents of Chaos have implied that next week's main event is vulnerable to interference."

He adjusts his tie with surgical precision.

"It is not."

? AGENT L ADDS CLARITY

Agent L steps forward, voice flat and absolute.

"There will be no interference next week."

He raises a finger.

Friday Night FURY: Episode 2

"Not from Chaos."

"Not from Order."

"Not from any faction, entity, anomaly, or clown-based disturbance."

He stares off-screen, clearly referencing the Jesters.

? AGENT M PROVIDES THE REASON

Agent M taps his tablet.

A holographic display flickers up showing:

- A timeline
- A branching probability tree
- A red warning labeled: "META-CASCADE RISK: HIGH"

"Interference at this juncture would destabilize the Episode 3 narrative structure."

He taps again.

"Marshal Hardcastle has been notified."

? AGENT K ISSUES THE FINAL WORD

The camera zooms in slightly.

"Order will be maintained."

He leans in.

"Chaos may wait."

A beat.

"But Order does not."

? THE GLITCH

The screen flickers.

Friday Night FURY: Episode 2

A tiny neon doodle of a smiley face appears in the corner -- clearly drawn by the Trickster Sister.

Agent K sees it.

Agent K deletes it with a single finger tap.

? FINAL MESSAGE

The Agents of Order speak in unison:

"Next week's Main Event will proceed without interference."

White flash.

The screen returns to the credits as if nothing happened.
